ESSAYS, &c.

AND EVEN NOW

By MAX BEERBOHM. Cr. 8vo, 7s. 6d. net.

In this Volume are collected twenty of Mr. Beerbohm's recent essays and stories which have never before appeared in book form. They show the "inimitable Max" at his very best as a master of delicate and subtle humour, an observer of rare insight, and as one of our most exquisite writers of prose.

LIFE AND LITERATURE

By LAFCADIO HEARN. Demy 8vo, 25s.

Essays on out-of-the-way literary subjects of more than ordinary interest. The papers here collected are those most representative of Hearn's individual taste and the adventurous note in his criticism.

CARTAGENA and the SINU

By R. B. CUNNINGHAME GRAHAM, Author of "A Brazilian Mystic." Demy 8vo, 15s.

Experiences in the quaint old-world towns and amongst the primitive people of the little-known republic of Colombia. The book has a short historical account of the conquest drawn from original sources.

A History of the English Agricultural Labourer

from 1870 to 1920

By F. E. GREEN, Member of the Royal Commission on Agriculture, Author of "The Awakening of England," etc.

Country Life.—"The book in itself is admirably done. If the author has ever written anything so good before, it has not been our good fortune to come across it."

Nation.—"His book will become and remain the standard history of the modern Labour movement on the farm and in the village. Its literary form is admirable."

Demy 8vo. Cloth. 12s. 6d. net. Inland postage, 9d.

A History of the English Agricultural Labourer

from the Earliest Times to 1894

By W. HASBACH, Professor of Political Economy in the University of Kiel. With Preface by SIDNEY WEBB. Second Impression.

Manchester Guardian.—"The book is an admirable example of scholarly and industrious research, forming a valuable contribution to the history of social and economic progress. . ."

Demy 8vo. Cloth. 5s. net. Inland postage, 6d.

The Tariff Problem

By Sir WILLIAM ASHLEY, M.A., Professor of Commerce in the University of Birmingham. Fourth Edition, revised and brought up to date.

Demy 8vo. Cloth. 18s. net. Inland postage, 9d.

Co-operation at Home and Abroad

A Description and Analysis. By C. R. FAY, M.A. New Edition, revised and brought up to date, with additional chapters.

Economist.—"This is a really useful book which should hold the ground for a considerable time as a standard work on its subject."

Daily Chronicle.—"The author traverses the very wide field of co-operative effort with scrupulous care and attentive observation, and his work shows how varied has been his research."

Demy 8vo. Cloth. 5s. net. Inland postage, 6d.

A First Book of School Celebrations

By Dr. F. H. HAYWARD, D.Litt., M.A., B.Sc.

Scotsman.—"A sequel to the volume on 'The Spiritual Foundations of Reconstruction.' . . . It has much in it to instruct and help not only educationists, but also all kinds of organisers of large meetings for celebration purposes."

Demy 8vo. Cloth. 5s. net. Inland postage, 6d.

A Second Book of School Celebrations

By the same Author. Being a Second Sequel to "The Spiritual Foundations of Reconstruction."

The most novel feature of this book is the inclusion of five "Homage" Celebrations and four "Service" Celebrations. Some readers will find in the three in honour of The Artist, The Musician, and The Martyr, the cream of the book; others will find it in School Leaving Day Celebration; others will prefer the Memorial Celebrations in Honour of Alfred the Great, Turner, Watts, Pasteur, and Lister; others, again, already familiar with the idea of an "Empire Day" Celebration, will turn expectantly to the celebration bearing that name by Dr. Hayward.

Demy 8vo. Cloth. 15s. net. Inland postage, 1s.

British Incomes & Property:

The Application of Official Statistics to Economic Problems.

By Sir JOSIAH STAMP, K.B.E., D.Sc., Guy Medallist of the Royal Statistical Society and late of the Inland Revenue Department. With Supplementary Tables just issued.

Daily Telegraph.—"A monument of technical exposition. . . . Invaluable to economists and officials. . . . To those concerned in laying the economic foundations of the future, Mr. Stamp's profound and critical analysis, supported by many illuminating tables, should prove of the greatest assistance. . . . This unique publication . . . written with a clearness and precision not often found in works of a technical kind, at once places him in the ranks of those great officials who have rendered lasting services to the nation."

A Study of Industrial Fluctuation

By DENNIS H. ROBERTSON, M.A., Fellow of Trinity College, Cambridge. Demy 8vo. Cloth. 8s. 6d. net. Inland postage, 6d.

Westminster Gazette.—"A truly enlightened despot, if equipped with an adequate comprehension of Cambridge economics, would, we imagine, after turning even the first fifty pages of Mr. Robertson's 'Study of Industrial Fluctuation,' hastily summon the author from those other duties to which he refers in his Preface, and set him to work on the enormous problem that will be presented by the reconstruction of industry after the war. . . ."

The Future of Our Agriculture

By HENRY W. WOLFF, Author of "Co-operation in Agriculture," etc.; Honorary Adviser to the Irish Agricultural Organization Society, one of the Founders of the British Agricultural Society, and of the Agricultural Organization Society, 1900. Demy 8vo. Cloth. 12s. 6d. net. Inland postage, 9d.

Westminster Gazette.—"Mr. Wolff is a diffuse and discursive writer, but besides knowing his subject from a to z, both at home and abroad, he knows how to make it interesting. . . . His keys to the future are education, organization, co-operation."

Demy 8vo. Cloth. 2 Vols. In the Press.

Principles of Comparative Economics

By RADHAKAMAL MUKERJEE, M.A., Ph.D., Lecturer in Economics, Calcutta University; Special Lecturer in Economics, University of the Punjab, 1917. Author of "The Foundations of Indian Economics." This book is of special interest in view of the coming into force of the Montagu Act.

By WALTER G. BELL,

Author of "Unknown London," etc.

With numerous Illustrations and Plans. Demy 8vo. 2nd edition in the Press. 25s. net.

"Mr. Bell has accomplished . . . his task with rare and profound knowledge, analytical skill, and charm of diction."—Morning Post.

"A well considered narrative of the Great Fire which will be interesting to everybody."—Times.

THE SPHINX.

By OSCAR WILDE.

With 10 Illustrations, end-papers, initial letters in colour, and cover design by ALASTAIR. Demy 4to. 25s. net.

"Alastair has a fine sense of design, a rich and bizarre fancy, and . . . an impressive stateliness of conception."—Times.

IN THE BLUE.

By MAJOR S. H. LONG, D.S.O., M.C. 5s. net.

Without Major Long's contribution to the history of flying, that history would be very incomplete. His account is a very valuable record of the development of flying, and contains far more thrilling episodes than an ordinary book of adventure.

FORTHCOMING PUBLICATIONS.

THE BAGGING OF BAGHDAD.

By ERNEST BETTS,

Illustrated. Crown 8vo. 7s. 6d. net.

A very real account of the Mesopotamian Campaign. Mr. Betts has the art of description, sketches character cleverly and wins his reader's confidence by the candid way he describes his own exact sensations. His book is as close to the outlook and attitude of the "foot-sloggers" who went through hardships and privations of every kind as a book can be.

A CAPTIVE AT CARLSRUHE.

By JOSEPH LEE.

Illustrated with drawings by the author. Crown 8vo. 7s. 6d. net.

Mr. Joseph Lee is already known as the author of some of the finest verse inspired by the war. "A Captive at Carlsruhe" discovers him as a writer of equally distinguished and vivid prose. The book describes the varied experience of a year's captivity in the cosmopolitan camp at Carlsruhe and other ex-German prison camps, and will probably prove to be the most complete picture of the difficulties and the diversions of that uneasy phase of life which has so far appeared.

COMPANIONS, FEATHERED, FURRED AND SCALED.

By C. H. DONALD.

With 25 Illustrations. Crown 8vo. 7s. 6d. net.

The author of these delightful books has a remarkable gift for "making friends" with birds and animals of all sorts, a gift which, coupled with exceptional opportunities for studying the lives and habits of the denizens of the Himalayas, has enabled him to write a book at once entertaining and full of useful and interesting information.

THE BROADS—1919.

A POEM by HUGH MONEY-COUTTS.

Demy 8vo. 3s. 6d. net.

An account in verse of the Norfolk Broads. There is a charming frontispiece in colour by Mr. Donald Maxwell.

OUR FAMILY AFFAIRS

E. F. BENSON

This story of a brilliant family, the head of which was the Archbishop of Canterbury, and three of whom are in the forefront of modern English novelists, presents a fascinating outline of the life of the famous author of "Dodo," who also sketches the wonderful career of his father.

With 8 Half-Tone Plates. 16s. net

OUR WOMEN: CHAPTERS ON THE SEX-DISCORD

ARNOLD BENNETT

In these chapters Arnold Bennett, while acknowledging that his subject is fraught with difficulties, bravely faces them, and discusses Woman from almost every conceivable point of view. It is a most diverting and provocative book, on an equally provocative topic.

7s. 6d. net

THE TRIUMPH OF NATIONALIZATION

SIR LEO CHIOZZA MONEY

A book which deals with one of the most critical subjects of the hour. It is a trenchant advocacy of Nationalization, giving a survey of what has been done in practice, and making a startling revelation as to profits and profiteers. The book will provoke the widest discussion. With a large number of Statistical Tables and General Charts.

7s. 6d. net

THROUGH BOLSHEVIK RUSSIA

MRS. PHILIP SNOWDEN

"Apart from the astounding chain of evidence contained in her work, which goes to reveal in all its nakedness the mockery of the Soviet systems, her book contains much other interesting matter. It should stand on its literary merits alone. Its dialogue is brilliant, its realism terrible, while its quiet humour and pathos carry the true ring of spontaneity and, above all, sincerity."—Times.

Mr. MURRAY'S NEW BOOKS

Descriptive List of Books may be had on request

By HORACE A. VACHELL

Author of "Quinneys'," "Brothers," "The Hill."

THE FOURTH DIMENSION

The stage has three sides. The Fourth Dimension is the missing side which includes life beyond the footlights. From intimate knowledge Mr. Vachell has written a masterly story of stage-land, in vivid contrast to the "county" home from which the young actress has broken away. 7s. 6d. net.

THE DIARY OF A JOURNALIST

By Sir HENRY LUCY. "Toby, M.P.," has been the unique chronicler of his times. He has seen the most interesting world from advantageous standpoints. No other journalist has had such opportunities as Sir Henry Lucy, or has used them so well. [Ready on Tuesday. 15s. net.

MEMOIRS OF THE COUNT DE ROCHECHOUART, 1788-1882

In France, Southern Russia, in the Napoleonic Wars, and as Commandant of Paris. This very remarkable autobiography is interesting alike for the social and personal incidents which it contains, and for the sidelights it throws on the history of the times. Illustrated. 16s. net.

POEMS. By LADY GERALD WELLESLEY

Patriotism and the Eternities, these are the chief sources of the inspiration of Lady Gerald Wellesley's Poems, which are as diverse as the aspects of infinity, and include thoughts, rythmical and lyrical, on subjects as widely divided as lunatics and stars. 5s. net.

CORRESPONDENCE OF CHARLOTTE GRENVILLE, LADY WILLIAMS WYNN

And her three sons, Sir WATKIN WILLIAMS WYNN, 5th Bart., Rt. Hon. CHARLES WILLIAMS WYNN, Sir HENRY WILLIAMS WYNN, K.C.B., G.C.H., 1795-1832. Edited by RACHEL LEIGHTON. With Portrait. 21s. net.

SER MARCO POLO

MESSRS. BELL'S LIST

By Maurice Hewlett

IN A GREEN SHADE.—A Country Commentary—Essays which deal with life rather than with art, with people rather than with books, but have in them just that quality of literary and classical allusion which reveals the philosophic and scholarly student of mankind. Crown 8vo. 6s. net. (Ready Oct. 11.)

By Vachel Lindsay

THE DANIEL JAZZ and other Poems, by the author of "General Booth enters into Heaven." Mr. Vachel Lindsay is America's most vigorous poet, and the poems in this volume are thoroughly characteristic of his peculiar style and qualities. Crown 8vo. 4s. 6d. net.

By Robert Lynd

THE PASSION OF LABOUR. A volume of Essays by the well-known Literary Editor of the Daily News. Though they deal with a single theme—the passion of labour to make the world a better place in which to live—they by no means savour of "politics," and can be enjoyed by people, of all shades of opinion, who appreciate good humour, insight, and a polished style. Small Crown 8vo. 6s. net.

By James Elroy Flecker

COLLECTED PROSE. This volume contains all of Mr. Flecker's prose work which he reprinted, or probably would have reprinted, except his novel "The King of Alsander." Crown 8vo. 7s. 6d. net. (Ready Oct. 11.)

A HISTORY OF BRITISH SOCIALISM.

By M. BEER. With an Introduction by R. H. TAWNEY, B.A. Now complete in two volumes. Demy 8vo. Vol. I. (To the Birth of Chartism.) 12s. 6d. net. Vol. II. (Chartism—1920.) 15s. net.

The Nation says: "The best history we know of the influence of Socialist theories and aspirations upon British politics and political thought."

The Glasgow Herald: "The most complete history of British Socialism yet written. . . . Mr. Beer has given historical coherence to a movement which it is the duty of all to understand, and has done so interestingly."

THE CHILD WELFARE MOVEMENT.

By JANET LANE-CLAYPON, M.D., D.Sc. Late Medical Inspector of Child Welfare under the Local Government Board. Crown 8vo. 7s. net.

The Woman's Leader: "Dr. Lane-Claypon is exceptionally well qualified to write upon the Child Welfare Movement. She has produced a text-book packed with information and interesting throughout. It is also admirably documented. . . . The book is primarily intended as a text-book for students qualifying as health visitors. It would also form an extremely useful handbook for members of Health Committees, and might be studied with advantage by all women who, as voters, have the power to promote the health of the nation."

PHENOMENA OF MATERIALIZATION

A Contribution to the Investigation of Mediumistic Teleplastics.

By Baron von Schrenck-Notzing (Consulting Physician in Munich).

Translated by E. E. FOURNIER D'ALBE, D.Sc. (Lond. and Birm.).
With 225 LARGE PHOTOGRAPHIC ILLUSTRATIONS. Impl. 8vo. (10½ by 7 in.). 35s. net.

This monumental work, by the well-known investigator, giving the fullest details of his experiments and their amazing results —which have caused both scientists and "Spiritists" alike] furiously to think—is at length on the market, both here and in the United States. It is without doubt the most important monograph in Psychical Research that has hitherto been published, confirming DR. CRAWFORD's experiments in Belfast, on which an illustrated article by him will be published in the October number of the "Psychic Research Quarterly" (3s. 6d. net.).

? WHAT ABOUT EINSTEIN ?

If you really want to understand the new theory of the Relativity of Time and of Space, the only book to read is Dr. E. E. SLOSSON's

Easy Lessons in Einstein. 5s. net.

It is written entirely for the layman, and furnishes a simple, and in some places entertaining, account of the Theory and of its more intelligible bearings on thought and life. It contains an article of EINSTEIN himself, and a Bibliography.

Studies in Contemporary Metaphysics.

By R. F. A. HOERNLE, Professor of Philosophy in Armstrong College, University of Durham. 8vo. 16s. net.

1. The Philosopher's Quest; 2. The Idol of Scientific Method in Philosophy; 3. Philosophy of Nature at the Cross-Roads; 4. On Doubting the Reality of the World of Sense; 5. Saving the Appearances in the Physical World; 6-7. Mechanism and Vitalism; 8. Theories of Mind; 9. The Self in Self-Consciousness; 10. Religion and Philosophy of Religion.

Three New Books on Economics.

(1) THE INEQUALITY OF INCOMES in Modern Communities.

By HUGH DALTON, M.A., Cassel Reader in Commerce in the University of London. 8vo. 10s. 6d. net. [This Day.

(2) The Economic Development of the Great Powers in the 19th Century.

By DR. LILIAN KNOWLES. [Shortly.

(3) Economics for Beginners.

By M. BUER. [Shortly.

An absolutely simple book, for educational purposes.

FOUR NEW PSYCHO-ANALYTICAL BOOKS.

(1) The Elements of Practical Psycho-Analysis.

(For Doctors, Teachers, and Parents only). By Dr. PAUL A. BOUSFIELD, M.R.C.S., L.R.C.P., Physician to the London Neurological Clinic. With Glossary and one Plate. 10s. 6d. net.

The only complete practical book so far written. It furnishes an account of the Theory, Technique, and Scope of Psycho-Analysis, dealing with The Unconscious Mind; Desires and Psychic Energy; Evolution of the Erotic Desire; Parental Complexes; Narcissism; Dreams; Functional Diseases; Compulsion Neuroses, &c.

(2) The Psychology of Dreams.

By W. S. WALSH, M.D., Fellow American Medical Assoc., Member Amer. Medico-Psychological Assoc., &c. 12s. 6d. net.

By a leading American neurologist, presenting a popular account for the educated laity and those suffering from nervous affections. The Mind in Sleep; Material of Dreams; Instigations of Dreams; Dreams as Wishes; Typical Prodromic and Prophetic Dreams; Nightmare; Night Terrors; Somnambulism; Analysis of Dreams; Day-Dreams, &c.

(3) Psycho-Analysis: Its History, Theory, and Practice.

By ANDRÉ TRIDON. 10s. 6d. net.

Sums up in a concise form the views of the greatest analysts scattered in hundreds of books, pamphlets, and magazine articles.

(4) Sanity in Sex.

By W. J. FIELDING. 10s. 6d. net. [This Day.

The Human Atmosphere (the Aura).

By W. J. KILNER, B.A., M.B. (Cantab.), M.R.C.P., late Electrician to St. Thomas's Hospital. With 64 Illustrations of human auras. 8vo. 10s. 6d. net.

A purely physical exposition, treating the aura largely as a means of diagnosis.

Two Books of Intense Interest To-day.

(1) The Adept of Galilee. A Story and an Argument. 442 pp. 9s. net.

Supplies a very definite need now that Humanity is seeking an interpretation of things spiritual which shall be acceptable to the higher reason. The Story, a narrative of the Life of Christ, depicting Jesus not as the "Man of Sorrows," but as one who had acquired that Bliss-Consciousness which is the goal and reward of Adeptship. The work is deeply reverent in tone, and absorbingly interesting.

(2) A Second Edition has at once been called for of The Initiate 7s. 6d. net.

By a very well-known Englishman, who prefers to remain anonymous. The Athenæum says that "Whatever may be the source of his inspiration, its effect has undoubtedly been to make for the writer's happiness, and promises many a reader's also. The deeper aspects are dealt with in the latter half of the volume, and the result is stimulating."
